

Parliamentary Democracy in Europe - 7th edition

In the framework of the Jean Monnet Module (2017-2019) on
Parliamentary Accountability and Technical Expertise:
Budgetary Powers, Information and Communication Technologies and Elections

SUMMER PROGRAM on

“Parliamentary Accountability and New Technologies: Transparency, Privacy and Security Challenges”

LUISS Guido Carli
School of Government
9-20 July 2018

DRAFT

First week

Monday 9 July

10.00-10.30 Introduction to the Summer program by the Director, Nicola Lupo (LUISS Guido Carli) and the Academic Coordinator, Cristina Fasone (LUISS Guido Carli)

11.00-12.30 – Opening lecture on “Parliamentary democracy in Europe and new technologies”
Michele Nicoletti (President of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe)

Afternoon

15.00-16.30 - Lecture on “The evolution of the public nature of parliamentary debates”
Henk te Velde (Leiden University)

Tuesday 10 July

Morning

9.00-10.30 – Lecture on “Parliaments and public engagement in the digital era”
Cristina Leston-Bandeira (University of Leeds)

11.00-13.00 – Guest professional seminar on “Political parties and parliamentary procedures in Europe in time of the Internet”
Benjamin Ooghe-Tabanou (Science Po – Paris, Médialab / Regards Citoyens)

Afternoon

15.00-17.00 - Presentation of papers by the participants

Wednesday 11 July

Morning

9.00-10.30 – Guest professional seminar on “Essential information for post-encyclopedic Parliaments: Epistemological challenges in the digital age”
Giovanni Rizzoni (Italian Chamber of Deputies)

11.00-13.30 - First Simulation session on “Revising the Declaration on Parliamentary Openness”
Cristina Fasone (LUISS Guido Carli)

Afternoon

15.00-17.00/18.00 - Guest professional seminar on “The European Parliament as an open institution... how to be connected with the people?”
Giancarlo Vilella (European Parliament, Directorate-General for Innovation and Technological Support)

Thursday 12 July

Morning

9.00-10.30 - Lecture on “Open parliaments’ tools in comparative perspective”
Rafel Rubio Nuñez (Centro de studios políticos y constitucionales and Complutense University, Madrid)

Afternoon

15.00-
Visit to the Italian Chamber of Deputies’ ICT offices (TBC)

Friday 13 July

Morning

9.00-10.30 Lecture on “Transparency and participation in rule-making and in administrative procedures”

Joana Mendes (University of Luxembourg)

11.00-13.00 - Laboratory on “How to manage a document-based process: the digital transformation”

Second week

Monday 16 July

Morning

11.00-12.30 Opening lecture on “‘Cybernetic’ sovereignty and the future of Constitutional Law”

Andrea Simoncini (University of Florence)

Afternoon

14.00-16.00 - Guest professional seminar on “E-petitions and electronic citizens’ initiatives as new tools to combine participatory and representative democracy? A comparative analysis”

Nicolas Besly (UK House of Lords), Lorella Di Giambattista (Senate of the Italian Republic), Sandro Mameli (European Parliament)

Tuesday 17 July

Morning

9.00-10.30 Lecture on “Participatory constitution-making, referendums, and the impact of the digital revolution”

Silvia Suteu (University College London)

11.00-13.00 Guest Professional seminar on “Perils and Promises of digital knowledge and public communication through the Google experience”

TBC

Afternoon

15.00-16.30 – Lecture on “The impact of digitalization on representative democracy: the challenges of privacy and security”

Filippo Donati (University of Florence)

Wednesday 18 July

Morning

9.00-10.30 Lecture on “The difficult task of combining openness and secrecy in today’s Parliaments: the case of parliamentary oversight on security services”
Cristina Fasone (LUISS Guido Carli)

11.00 – 12.30 Lecture on “The role of MPs in a digital world”
Olivier Rozenberg (Sciences Po-Paris)

Afternoon

14.00-16.00 Presentation of papers by the participants

Thursday 19 July

Morning

9.00-10.30 – Lecture on “The protection of privacy in more ‘open’ Parliaments”
Oreste Pollicino (Bocconi University, Milan)

11.00 – 13.00 Simulation session on “Revising the Declaration on Parliamentary Openness”
Cristina Fasone (LUISS Guido Carli)

Afternoon

15.00-
Visit to the Italian Senate’s ICT offices (TBC)

Friday 20 July

9.00-13.00

Closing roundtable organised on “The challenges for privacy ahead. The contribution of Parliaments”
TBC

With the presentation of the revised Declaration on Parliamentary Openness by the participants

Commencement of certificates and diplomas