1. A research project created in 2005 at the NOVA Law School, Lisbon

1. Subject of Legistics/Legisprudence as being part of the programme in the Master Degree in Public Law

Main Goal:

- to assess the legislative production in Portugal

GOALS:

- To characterize the legislative production in Portugal, i.e. to measure its volume and to identify its distribution by types of legislation, subjects, legislator, the influence of European legislation towards the national legislation, etc.;

- To assess the practices of regulatory impact assessment before legislation comes into force (ex ante) and when it is foreseen by the law, in order to follow-up its application (ex post);
- To develop instruments of measuring some indicators as duration of legislation, amendments' frequency, regulatory compliance, etc.

OUTPUTS

- Observatory of Portuguese Legislation database

Overall view of all legislation approved and publicized in Portugal and the relation between it
- Annual *Bulletin of Observatory of Portuguese Legislation (available at <https://olp.cedis.fd.unl.pt>)
