

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

“MULTILEVEL LEGISLATIVE DRAFTING AND LEGISLATIVE IMPACT ASSESSMENT”

AMPHITHEATRE 8, UNIVERSITY OF LISBON SCHOOL OF LAW
LISBON, JULY 15, 2022
(IN PERSON AND ONLINE)

Scientific Coordination

João Tiago Silveira, Professor at University of Lisbon School of Law, partner of Moraes Leitão, Galvão Teles, Soares da Silva & Associados, former Secretary of State of the Presidency of the Council of Ministers

Rui Tavares Lanceiro, Professor at University of Lisbon School of Law, advisor to the Minister of the Environment and Climate Action, former advisor at the Constitutional Court, former assistant in government offices responsible to produce normative acts.

Manuel Cabugueira, Professor at the School of Economic Sciences and Organizations, Lusófona University of Humanities and Technologies

Sónia Rodrigues, Coordinator of the Observatory of Portuguese Legislation, advisor of the President of the Constitutional Court and former advisor to the Working Group for Legislative Consolidation (Parliament)

Executive Coordination

Felipe Andrade, Lisbon Centre for Research in Public Law of the Institute for Legal and Political Sciences (University of Lisbon School of Law)

9:30 – Welcoming address

João Tiago Silveira, University of Lisbon School of Law

Mauro Zamboni, Stockholm University, President of the International Association of Legislation (IAL)

9:45 – Computer-assisted translation tools and implementation/transposition of EU multilingual legal acts

Enrico Albanesi, University of Genova, Department of Law

10:15 – Coffee-break

10:45 – Parallel sessions:

PANEL I - Challenges of transposing directives (Amphitheatre 8)

Moderator: Rui Tavares Lanceiro, University of Lisbon School of Law

—

A top-bottom approach of Rule-as-Code in the EU context

Rute Saraiva, University of Lisbon School of Law

—

The Transposition of Directives by the Regions of Europe

Ricardo Sousa da Cunha, Law School, University of Minho

—

The California Effect: Advantages of multilevel systems and local interventions

Inês Lameiras Azevedo, European University Institute

Panel I Concluding discussion

PANEL II - Multilevel Governance and legislative impact assessment (Amphitheatre 7)

Moderator: Sónia Rodrigues, Observatory of Portuguese Legislation

—

Multilevel constitutional reform and its dilemmas: Brazil's Pension Reform case

João Trindade Cavalcante Filho, Federal Senate (Brazil)

—

An Overview of the Iranian Multi-level Governance Model: Understanding the Role of Supra-Governmental Councils in Achieving Policy Consistency and Stability

Seyed Mohamad Sadegh Emamian, Governance and Policy Think Tank, Sharif University of Technology, Tehran, Iran

—

Post Legislative Scrutiny in Indonesia: A Misconception and Proposed Solutions

Fitriani Ahlan Sjarif; Aditya Wahyu Saputro; Efraim Jordi Kastanya, Faculty of Law Universitas Indonesia - Indonesian Center for Legislative Drafting

Panel II Concluding discussion

12:45 – Lunch break

14:30 – Presentation of methodology and results of Legimpact Project

Manuel Cabugueira, Professor at the School of Economic Sciences and Organizations,
Lusófona University of Humanities and Technologies

Eduardo Magrani, PhD Researcher at Lisbon Centre for Research in Public Law (CIDP)

Cristina Oliveira, PhD Researcher at Lisbon Centre for Research in Public Law (CIDP)

Martim Farinha, Researcher and PhD Candidate of NOVA School of Law

15h00 – Discussion and Comments on the Methodology and Results of Legimpact

16h00 – Coffee-break

16:30 – Impact Assessment and Transposition of Directives in Portugal in the Future

André Moz Caldas, Secretary of State for the Presidency of the Council of Ministers

17h15 – Closing of the conference

17h30 – End

Free Entrance

Working Language: English

Programme Subject Change

All times are given in Lisbon Time (GMT +1)

For registration, please send an email to Felipe Andrade felipeandrade@campus.ul.pt